Tent Show Opens Next Wednesday

Presented under the auspices of Bert S. Crossland Post, No. 170, American Legion of Torrance (which will share in the gross receipts), the United Carnival Company of Los Angeles will pitch its big tents here Wednesday, Nov. 25, for a five-day run.

Commander Boyle announced at the Legion meeting Tuesday night that he had investigated the carnival concern and all reports showed it was a "good, clean and wholesome show." The carnival contains five thrilling riding devices, circus sideshows, 20 concessions, several other attractions and a number of free acts to be given each day and night.

Matinees are scheduled for Thanksgiving and Saturday. Legion men will be on duty at all times for protection and information. This will be the first outdoor attraction to visit Torrance this year. The grounds will be located on Torrance boulevard.

PICKING THEMSELVES UP!

"Pick Yourself Up" is the colorful title of one of the comedy dances performed by Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers in their current screen hit "Swing Time" which opens tonight at the Torrance Theatre. It is a hot fox-trot number in which the popular stars do some spectacular hurdling.

A sensational solo dance in blackface by Astaire, the presentation of the newest ballroom rage, the Swing Waltz, some of the most gorgeous settings ever shown on the screen, a star-spangled supporting cast and a brand-new type of story for Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, plus six of the catchiest melodies of Jerome Kern's career, are among the attraction elements of the hilarious musical romance, "Swing Time."

Sparkling with scores of novel features that make it one of the most entertaining film musicals of recent years, "Swing Time," beginning a three-day run tonight at the Torrance Theatre, marks the newest co-starring triumph of the famous dancing-comedy stars.

Love affairs and complications feature the story plot, with Astaire endeavoring to rid himself of a haughty fiancée, Betty Furness, so that he can marry Miss Rogers, at the same time trying to discourage a glamorous orchestra leader, Georges Metaxa, who also has matrimonial designs on Ginger.

Radio, Screen, Stage Stars in 'Big Broadcast'

A dozen big time radio entertainers in addition to a strong line-up of screen and stage talent has been assembled by Paramount to make "The Big Broadcast of 1937," which begins Sunday at the Torrance theatre, the most lavish production of its kind.

With Jack Benny, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Bob Burns, Martha Raye, Benny Goodman and his Swing Orchestra, and Leopold Stokowski and his Symphony Orchestra heading the list of radio headliners, and Shirley Ross, Ray Milland, Frank Forest, Eleanor Whitney representing Hollywood, "The Big Broadcast of 1937" is an all-star attraction whose individual performers have followings running into the millions.

The story is a comic treatment of the broadcasting business. Benny, as station master, has the unenviable job of keeping Gracie Allen, sponsor of an important program, happy. He is also responsible for keeping Shirley Ross off the air so that she won't annoy Forest, an orchestra leader. But Miss Ross gets on the air—teaming with Forest, to the good fortune of the audience. She and Ray Milland carry the love interest.

State Parley on Winter Sports Events Called

James K. Reid, of Long Beach, superintendent of the county department of recreation camps and playgrounds, will leave this week for San Francisco to attend a meeting to discuss a winter sports program.

The meeting is sponsored by the state Chamber of Commerce and state highway officials have been asked to be present to discuss traffic problems on roads leading into mountain playgrounds where snow sometimes blocks them.

Famed Radio Troupe to Appear Here

Stuart Hamblen and His Covered Wagon Jubileans. . . . Sonny Dawson, boy-yodeler formerly of Torrance, with them

One of the best known radio entertaining troupes, Stuart Hamblen and his Covered Wagon Jubilee, will stage an hour's show, followed by a modern dance at the civic auditorium, Saturday night, Nov. 21, beginning at 8 o'clock.

A regular broadcaster who has not lacked sponsors during the six years he has been on the air, Hamblen and his cowboy-musicians, singers and entertainers are now engaged on a "farewell tour" of many Southern California cities. They will go to San Francisco shortly for an extended radio and personal appearance engagement.

Of prime importance to Torrance residents is the presence of Sonny Dawson, former local boy, as one of the featured stars of the colorful troupe. Sonny, who was under the wing of Postmaster and Mrs. Conner and others while he was here until four or five years ago, bears the title of "national champion yodeler" now and his singing is always a hit on the Hamblen ether and stage programs.

Heard regularly over radio stations KMPC, KELW and KECA, the versatile outfit of talented musicians and singers is coming to Torrance intact for their entertainment Saturday night. The stage show, consisting of all the acts and many of the numbers which have made Hamblen's gang famed in the West, will be from 8 to 9 and the dancing will follow until 12 midnight.

Dance Team in Sixth Triumph

"WALTZ IN SWING TIME"—the big Astaire-Rogers number in the new synopacted waltz rhythm staged in a lavish night club with a 16-piece orchestra.

Whirling to new prestige in their sixth consecutive dancing triumph, Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers set up a new record for themselves to shoot at with their "Swing Time," the most tuneful and original of all their vehicles. Its opening at the Plaza theatre, Hawthorne, Saturday is awaited with eagerness by the local cinema-going public.

With the delightful Jerome Kern musical setting, brilliant cast and spectacular features of "Swing Time," the wing-footed celebrities bid fair to eclipse their previous records as America's favorite screen entertainers. They present several hot dances and a half dozen song numbers of which "Pick Yourself Up," "The Way You Look Tonight," "Never Gonna Dance" and "A Fine Romance," are acknowledged song hits.

'PUT 'EM UP!' GRACIE ORDERS

Gracie Allen has the time of her life in "The Big Broadcast of 1937," the all-star comedy coming to the Torrance Theatre beginning Sunday. She is shown above just having a little fun with Jack Benny, who heads the cast, and George Burns, her partner.
